

By the Queene.

240

A Proclamation for the prices of wines.

Here it is ordeined and prouided by a statute made & established in the Parliament holden at Westminster the viii. day of June. in the xxviii. yeere of the Reigne of the Queenes Maiesties dearely beloued father of famous memorie King Henrie the eight, that the prices of all kinde of wines, (that is to say) of the Tunne, Butte, Pipe, Punchion, Hogshed, Tyerse, Barrel, and Rundlet, when it shoulde be solde in grosse, should be limited and declared by the Lorde Chauncelor of England, Lorde Treasourer of England, Lorde President of the said Kings most honorable counsell, Lorde priuie seale, and the two chiefe Justices of either benche, or siue, foure, or thre of them, and that the same should be solde according to the same prices so by them set and taxed vpon payne and penaltie contained in the saide Acte: Forasmuch as the Lorde Chancelour of Englande, Lorde Treasourer of England, and the two Lorde chiefe Justices for diuers considerations them moving, and according to the effecte and meaning of the saide statute and acte, haue in wryting by their deliberate aduices vpon conference had with sundry persons thereto requisite, taxed, limited, assigned and appointed the prices of Gascoigne and frenche wines to be solde within this her highnesse Realme for this yeere following (that is to say) Every Tunne of the best Gascoigne and frenche wines to be solde (the seller bearing all the charges due and payable to her Maiestie in her Custome house) after the rate and price of xii. poundes sterling the Tunne & not aboue. The buyer bearing all the said charges after the price & rate of ix. li. vi. s. viii. d. sterling the Tunne, & not aboue. And euery Pipe, Butte, Hogshed, Tyerse, Barrell, Rundlet, and other vessels of the same seuerall wines to be solde in grosse after their quantities according to the same rates, and not aboue. And euery Tunne of Rochel & other smal and thynne wines to be sold (the seller bearing all the charges due & payable to her Maiestie in her Custome house) after the price and rate of tenne poundes sterling the Tunne, and not aboue. And the buyer bearing the said charges at vii. li. vi. s. viii. d. sterling the Tunne, and not aboue. And euery Butte, Pipe, Hogshed, Tyerse, Barrell, Rundlet, & other vessels of the same seuerall wines to be sold in grosse after their quantities according to the same rates & not aboue. The Queenes most excellent Maiestie therefore straightly chargeth and commandeth all and singuler her louing Subiects and others putting any maner Gascoigne, frenche, Rochel, or other small or thynne wines to sale within this her highnesse Realme, that they, ne any of them in any maner of wise by any craft, couin, or priuate agreement shall sell any Gascoigne, frenche, Rochel or other small or thin wines, other wise then is aboue limited vpon paine to forfeit and pay such penaltie as is conteyned and expessed in the said statute, or in any other statute made or ordeyned for the same. And moreouer her highnesse pleasure and commandement is, that all & singuler Maiors, Sheriffes, Bayliffes, Constables and other officers to whom it apperteineth, that they, and euery of them with diligence, cause and see that this her Proclamation be put in due execution after the tenour of the same, and also according to an other acte of Parliament established in the Parliament aboue rehearsed against such as will refuse to sell their wines at prices taxed as is aforesaid, as they will answer thereunto at their perils. Given at our Mannour of Saint James the sixt day of Nouember in the siue & twentieth yeere of our raigne.

God saue the Queene.

 Imprinted at London by Christopher Barker, Printer to the Queenes most Excellent Maiestie.